Training Ship Sylvia IS HAULED OFF BAR

Militiamen Unable to Make Colonial Beach, as Scheduled, Friday Night.

The United States ship Sylvia, training ship of the District naval militia. which grounded at Upper Cedar Point Friday night, has been released from Nanjemon bar, and is proceeding on her cruise. The Sylvia was not damaged. The vessel returns to Washington tonight or tomorrow morning The Sylvia was pulled off the bar at 7:39 o'clock last night by the naval tug

With the naval militia aboard and it command of Commander Joseph A. Dempf, the Sylvia left Washington Priday afternoon for a two-day cruise The men aboard expected to make Coionial Beach early in the night, and after practice to spend Memorial Day with the holiday crowd ashore. This plan was shattered by the grounding. It is probable a landing may be made at the beach today.

Nanjemon bar is one of the worst spots along the river for small craft. Many vessels are grounded there every year. The bar is of light sand, however, and there is no real danger in good weather.

It is probable a board of inquiry will be convened either by Commander Dempf or by the Navy Department to consider the grounding and fix respon-sibility. This is the usual form of proedure when any naval vessel is ground

The tug Captain Toby, of the Taylor fleet, brought the first new grounding to Washington of The Captain Toby endeavor-the Sylvia, but without re-Upper Cedar Point bar is means of communication, and rday the Sylvia's plight was compared at to the Navy Department by the captain of the Toby. Lieut. Buist C. Getsinger is executive officer of the Sylvia; Ensign Harold Crawford is navigator, and Ensign Frank W. Sigourney is senior watch of-
